

SAAQ – Self-Study Driving Course

Link	https://saaq.gouv.qc.ca/en/driving-course/?ADMCMMD_prev=IGNORE
Description	This online course is divided into 12 modules, all of which include a classroom learning section and a self-study section, composed of readings and exercises, to be completed at home. There are instructions for self-study in each of the modules. These will help your learner to pass the knowledge part of the driving exam.
Media used	Interactive webpage, PDF document
Readability	Excellent. Sample questions are concise and clear. PDF slides present information in bite-sized chunks.
Activities included	PDF slides, Sample test multiple-choice questions.
Multisensory	Visual (illustrations, charts, pictograms), T-K (Interaction with screen via clicking or touching screen)
Language level	Early-intermediate (with support) and above
Prerequisites	Navigate webpage, scrolling, touching/clicking screen
Recommended Learning Mode	Videoconferencing where learner shares screen, can be used independently on a smartphone, tablet, laptop or computer
Device compatibility	Laptop, tablet, smartphone, computer
Log-in/subscription	Not required
Cost	Free
Diverse Content	N/A
Canadian Content	Yes
Tutor Comment	Good option to prepare and practice for the knowledge part of driving exam. Recommend to do this along with using the Driver's Handbook. Could be done independently but learner will get more out of it with tutor support and discussion of material.